2025

We know how vital it is for clergy and leaders to have access to high-quality training on clergy boundaries and anti-racism practices—resources that strengthen ministry and deepen community engagement.

In partnership with some of the best instructors in these fields, Convergence hosts excellent ONLINE courses in Clergy Boundary Training and Anti-Racism Training for Clergy and Congregations. They are asynchronous and meet the standards of Committee on Ministry requirements. We'd like to partner with you to make these trainings more accessible for your leaders—at no cost to you.

Warm regards, Cameron

Rev. Cameron Trimble, CEO, Convergence, convergenceus.org, convergencecolab.org

Online Ethics for Clergy Today

May 20, 2025, 10AM and 6PM zoom only

With social media, the rapid development of artificial intelligence, and the sheer amount of time most folks spend online, its time for a deeper discussion of what personal and professional boundaries clergy might want to have in place to create healthy habits around their online activities. Register here.

Financial Integrity

September 19, 2025, 10AM and 6PM zoom only

Getting back to one of the original five basics of boundary discussions, this will be a deep dive into clergy ethics and church money. We will look at gifts, church credit cards, rewards programs, and more. Register here.

Anti-Bias Training: Cultural Humility in Ministerial Practice

November 12, 2025, 10AM and 6PM zoom only

We serve a church that is 83% white that strives to be a justice seeking denomination, as well as one that is multicultural and multiracial. Your own congregation, perhaps even your community, may not be very racially diverse but is likely more culturally diverse that you would think on the surface. Join this discussion for deeper understanding of the ways in which we carry implicit and explicit biases in our daily lives and how those biases can impact ourselves, those around us, and the Church. Register here.

Analyzing the Grift and Grab of Project 2025 - Join with Dr. Trex Proffitt for a deep dive into the alarming development, articulation, and implementation of Project 2025 by a coalition of authoritarian, religious, and conservative extremist groups pushing for control over the U.S. government. In this session, we'll dissect the alliance behind Project 2025, its strategy and tactics, and the danger to democracy, safety, freedom, and civil rights it poses. As the P25 alliance infiltrates key government institutions, the inevitable result will be both the destruction and repurposing of government agencies for specific, identifiable ends. The result will be a nation where power is concentrated in the hands of a few, where loyalty (not efficiency, effectiveness, or fairness) is required of government employees. This in turn causes a loss of liberties and an erosion of constitutional safeguards, as well as economic decline. Learn how these forces are manipulating the political levers to impose their extremist agenda. But it's not all doom and gloom—this workshop will also arm you with actionable solutions for resisting the "big grift" and authoritarian control. Discover how you, as a citizen, can protect democratic values, support institutions that uphold justice, and fight for equality and freedom. The time to act is now, and the power to resist begins with you. Eventbrite registration links:

April 28-June 22

Women Who Changed Christian History - instructor: Dr. Briana Wong - Location: Online, through CMLT Canvas platform - Course Description: This course examines the historical and theological impact of women in Christianity from its beginnings to today. Students will explore influential Christian women's perspectives, analyze historical documents, and apply an inductive approach to studying Christianity globally. Through observation, analysis, and reflection, they will gain a deeper understanding of spiritual beliefs and practices across time and cultures. *To be most successful, previous course work in Christian History or Church History is preferred.** - For questions, please contact Leslie LeSieur at leslie.lesieur@ptstulsa.edu or call (918) 270-6471. April 28-June 22

Ecumenism - Instructor: Rev. Dr. Jack Sullivan, Jr. – Christian unity is a gift of God to the whole church. The ecumenical movement is the vehicle through which diverse church bodies live out their unity in spiritual, biblical, and practical manners. In this course, we will probe the biblical urgency behind ecumenism, discuss its theological and historical meanings and implications, and consider the links between the ecumenical movement, Christian faithfulness, and movements for social justice and inclusion. Education and Leader Development. Online course. The price of the course is $100. Click here to register.

April 28-June 22

Overcoming Conflict - Instructor: Rev. Dr. Kris Tenny-Brittian - The purpose of this course is to explore congregational conflict: how to recognize, identify, and analyze it so that students will be able to develop strategies that will allow them to relevantly and practically intervene, confront, neutralize or negate, and use it. The price of the course is $100. Click here to register.

- April 28-June 22 Church History - Instructor: Dr. Lisa Barnett - This is a history class with one major exception - there is little emphasis on remembering dates except as “markers” in Christian History. By markers I mean paradigm shifts and movements in the transformation of the church from age to age. It is more important to grasp the movements in Christian History and just use dates as general “markers” or benchmarks during which the church was in transition or reformation. The course will include the use of “primary sources,” historical documents from church history. Online course. The price of the course is $100. Click here to register.
- April 28-June 22 Worship - Instructor: Rev. Geoff Mitchell - This course is designed to help participants meet the Worship criteria of the Sixteen Areas of Ministerial Practice for the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) including the formulation of a theology for worship in the local congregation, overview of the history and present trends in Christian worship, development of practical skills in planning and implementing weekly and special services of worship, introduction to the rich use of the arts and sacred music in the worship setting, and the development of resources which can be used for worship. Online course. The price of the course is $100. Click here to register.

- June 23-Aug. 17      Mission of the Church in the World – (Center for Ministry and Lay Training – Phillips Theological Seminary) – Registration Deadline is June 9 - Instructor: Rev. David Avery - This course is an introduction to the content of the Bible and the methods of study that scholars use to understand it. Students will learn about the history of the periods in which various biblical books were written, and about how the individual writings came together into a single book. They will attempt to discover what the biblical writers were seeking to accomplish through their writings. This search will present students with understandings of the world and the place of humanity that can help illuminate alternative ways humans have experienced the world and attempted to make sense of it. Online course - the price of the course is $100. Click here to register.
- June 23-Aug. 17      Stewardship - (Center for Ministry and Lay Training – Phillips Theological Seminary) – Registration Deadline is June 9 - Instructor: Rev. Dr. Bruce Barkhauer - This is an introduction and exploration of the basic concerns and issues involved in ethical reflection, the Biblical and theological foundations of Christian ethics, and the response of the Christian to perennial and contemporary social and moral issues, with a view to equipping the student for ethical reflection in preaching, teaching, and pastoral leadership. Jeff Gill - This course will present an overview of the history and practices of the Stone-Campbell movement as foundational to its current forms of Disciples worship, missions, and ministry: denominationally, ecumenically, and culturally. ***Please note this course week runs from Sunday-Thursday. The start date for class will be Sunday, June 22.*** - online course - the price of the course is $100. Click here to register.
- June 23-Aug. 17      UCC History, Polity & Identity - (Center for Ministry and Lay Training – Phillips Theological Seminary) – Registration Deadline is June 9 – Instructor: Margot Pickett - Although men hold most of the leadership positions in Christian communities today, women comprise the vast majority of the members. This course highlights the role of women in the development of Christianity from the New Testament to the present day. Women's contributions to the formation of Christian theology and practice have tended to become obscured in that history so often has been written by men. In this course, students will have the chance to learn about women's impact on Christian history through historical documents either penned by women or, alternatively, in which women's voices can be discerned by readings through the lines. The course will highlight the work of women pastors, mystics, theologians, activists, and others whose names might be lost to us, but whose witness nevertheless shaped the expressions of Christianity with which they identified. Online course - the price of the course is $100. Click here to register.
